“If the teachings of God’s Word were made the controlling influence in the life of every man and woman, if mind and heart were brought under its restraining power, the evils that now exist in national and in social life would find no place” (Prophets and Kings, p. 192).

“In everything he followed the ways of his father Asa and did not stray from them; he did what was right in the eyes of the Lord. The high places, however, were not removed, and the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.”

Into the Story

After this, the Moabites and Ammonites with some of the Meunites came to wage war against Jehoshaphat.

Some people came and told Jehoshaphat, “A vast army is coming against you from Edom, from the other side of the Dead Sea. It is already in Hazezon Tamar (that is, En Gedi). Alarmed, Jehoshaphat resolved to inquire of the Lord, and he proclaimed a fast for all Judah. The people of Judah came together to seek help from the Lord, and indeed, they came from every town in Judah to seek him.

Then Jehoshaphat stood up in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem at the temple of the Lord in the front of the new courtyard and said:

“Lord, the God of our ancestors, are you not the God who is in heaven? You rule over all the kingdoms of the nations. Power and might are in your hand, and no one can withstand you. Our God, did you not drive out the inhabitants of this land before your people Israel and give it forever to the descendants of Abraham your friend? They have lived in it and have built in it a sanctuary for your Name, saying, “If calamity comes upon us, whether the sword of judgment, or plague or famine, we will stand in your presence before this temple that bears your Name and will cry out to you in our distress, and you will hear us and save us.”

“But now here are men from Ammon, Moab and Mount Seir, whose territory you would not allow Israel to invade when they came from Egypt; so they turned away from them and did not destroy them. See how they are repaying us by coming to drive us out of the possession you gave us as an inheritance. Our God, will you not judge them? For we have no power to face this vast army that is attacking us. We do not know what to do, but our eyes are on you.”

All the men of Judah, with their wives and children and little ones, stood there before the Lord.

Then the Spirit of the Lord came on Jahaziel son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite and descendant of Asaph, as he stood in the assembly.

“He said: ‘Listen, King Jehoshaphat and all who live in Judah and Jerusalem! This is what the Lord says to you: “Do not be afraid or discouraged because of this vast army. For the battle is not yours, but God’s.’”

(2 Chronicles 20:1-15, NIV)

to life

Friday
Read Leviticus 10:10, 11.
Take time to reflect on Jehoshaphat’s storied journey of devotion, mistakes, and uncompromising faithfulness to God’s plan for Israel. His story holds up a high standard of loyalty to God and courageous leadership for Israel. But his life has mistakes and moments that exposed his flaws as well. Ruminate on how we can be great leaders and people of influence for God even though we are not always perfect. Write down a few thoughts you have on the tension between greatness and making mistakes, as it appears in your life. (You can use the Notes pages in the back of your study guide.)

Tuesday
Read Psalm 86:2.
While there are many things that influence your outlook and your behavior, there are a few basic ideas that influence most of your decisions. Read the quote from Prophets and Kings about the controlling influences in your life. To what degree do you think the evil in the world would diminish if people allowed God’s will to become the “controlling influence” in their lives? What laws or principles of God’s way of life would make the most significant change for the better?

Monday
Read 1 Kings 22:43.
King Jehoshaphat’s great qualities are summed up in one sentence in today’s Bible verse and this week’s Key Text; in the following sentence the Bible admits a shortcoming that also marked his life. Read this passage in a few different translations, if available, and think about what close friends might say about you, in a sentence. In the space given below, write a sentence about the life of someone you admire:

Sabbath
Read 2 Chronicles 20:12.
The ranking exercise in the What Do You Think? section of this lesson challenges you to identify the leadership qualities you think are most important as well as least important. We often think leaders always have a clear sense of what to do in times of crisis; but note what Jehoshaphat said to God as the enemies of Israel were approaching in today’s Bible verse. How would you describe this act as an attribute of a good leader?

Sunday
Read John 20:30, 31 and 2 Timothy 3:16, 17.
The Into the Story section contains a portion of a battle that demonstrates the God-inspired leadership of Jehoshaphat. Answer the questions in the Out of the Story section, including the snapshots of Jehoshaphat’s reign. How would you compare Jehoshaphat’s leadership style with other leaders in the Bible? According to our Bible readings for today, all stories of Scripture have the power to speak to us. As you learn more about this great king, what message do you think God has for you in this passage?
